

Nursing Degree Courses for RNs

Registered Nurses – Earn Your Nursing Degree Right Where You Work, On Your Own Schedule.

Now can be completed entirely online!

There's never been a better time for you to discover where learning leads. Ryerson University's G. Raymond Chang School of Continuing Education, and the Daphne Cockwell School of Nursing in partnership with hospitals across Ontario offers flexible scheduling and delivery options of courses leading to a BScN degree for nurses. By completing a combination of on-site video-conference and/or online courses, you can earn your degree through part-time study. You don't need a post-secondary transcript to begin taking courses – just proof of your RN status.

Online Information Session

Learn more about Ryerson's BScN degree program by attending a free online information session.

When:

Every Wednesday at 4:30 p.m.

Where:

Visit www.ryerson.ca/ce/nursing for more information.

For More Information

Please visit www.ryerson.ca/ce/nursing or contact the nursing info line.

E-mail: cenurse@ryerson.ca

Phone: 416.979.5000, ext. 4775

THE CHANG SCHOOL

RYERSON UNIVERSITY
CONTINUING EDUCATION