

For immediate release: Wednesday, January 30, 2008

Media Advisory/ Photo Opportunity

Gung Hay Fat Choy! York Central Hospital Staff and Physicians are happy to celebrate Chinese New Year!

Richmond Hill, ON: Join us as York Central Hospital celebrates Chinese New Year. This event is organized and funded by staff and physicians of Chinese descent who wish to share their cultural background with their colleagues, our patients and visitors. The celebration will include a New Year's lion dance, kung fu demonstration, traditional Chinese music demonstration, traditional Chinese New Year sweets and a variety of other cultural displays and activities. Media and the public are welcome to participate in what promises to be a truly wonderful event and testament to the diversity of both our hospital and community.

Who: York Central Hospital staff and special guests including: Richmond Hill Mayor David Barrow

What: Chinese New Year Celebration including:

- New Year's lion dance,
- kung fu demonstration,
- traditional Chinese music demonstration, and
- a selection of traditional Chinese New Year sweets

Where: 10 Trench Street (Main Hospital Site),
Atrium, Centre for Continuing Care and Rehabilitation
(building closest to Major Mackenzie Drive and Trench St. intersection)
York Central Hospital, Richmond Hill, ON

When: Wednesday, February 6, 2008
2:30 to 4:00 p.m.
Ceremony will be held in the Atrium.