York Central Hospital Staff and Physician to Receive Awards for Outstanding Commitment to Compassionate Patient Care!

Richmond Hill, ON: Join us as York Central Hospital presents the next in our series of awards recognizing compassionate care at the hospital. Established in conjunction with York Central Hospital Foundation, and generously funded by Foundation donor and local businessman Mr. Farsad Kiani, this endowment recognizes and rewards York Central Hospital staff and physicians who regularly demonstrate outstanding examples of 'great customer service' and 'compassionate care.'

The Kiani Compassionate Care Award, is presented each quarter to a physician and two staff members (one who provides direct patient care and one who supports patient care). This quarter we are pleased to present one physician award and four staff awards! Each award recipient receives a commemorative certificate, pin and cash award.
